IN THE CIRCUIT COURT, FOR NOVEMBER TERM, A. D. 1913.
BE IT REMEMBERED, That heretofore, to-wit, on Friday, December 19th, 1913, the same being the 33rd day of said term, the following among other proceedings were had, to-wit:
John R. Kirkpatrick, Plaintiff, ) vs. ) Rhoad Barton, Defendant. ) Partition.

Now at this day come plaintiff in his own proper person as well as by his attorney; also comes defendant in person and by his attorney and files his answer and this trial coming on to be heard on the issues joined the same is now tried and submitted to the Court upon the pleadings and proof adduced and the Court now being fully advised of and concerning the premises and upon due consideration finds that the plaintiff John R. Kirkpatrick is entitled to the undivided one-half interest in fee simple in the land in the petition described; and further finds that defendant Rhoad Barton is also entitled to the undivided one-half interest in fee simple in the lands in the petition described as follows to-wit: Lying, being and situated in St. Francois County, State of Missouri, Lot one (1) of the Southeast 1/4, quarter of 1/4, Section Eleven (11) Township Thirty-six (36) North Range six (6), East, except ten acres in the Southeast corner sold to Darius Lawson, two acres, conveyed to Rhoad Barton, also one quarter of an acre conveyed to the St. Francois County Court for a family burying ground and excepting and reserving to the heirs of John and Rhoad Barton a perpetual right of ingress and egress from the county road to the aforesaid burying ground, containing 34.35-100 acres more or less. Also a part of survey 3063 Township Thirty-six (36) North Range 5 East containing originally 88.55-100 acres, less forty acres conveyed to Charles Mitchell and 27.35-100 acres conveyed to C. C. Johnson leaving 21.20-100 also reserving the right of a wagon road to the land of C. C. Johnson, aggregating 55.55-100 acres more or less. And the Court further finds that the land is such, and the several interests of the parties hereto are as deversified that division in kind cannot be had without great prejudice to said parties owning it; it is therefore ordered by the Court that said above described land be sold by the Sheriff of this county to the highest and best bidder for 50 per cent in cash, and balance deferred by payments of the purchase price, and deferred payment is to be secured by deed of trust on the land hereinbefore described or sold for cash at the option of the purchaser, and that said Sheriff make due report of his proceedings therein to the next regular term of this Court, to which said term said cause is now ordered continued.
